MEET THE INSTRUCTOR
CARL TAYLOR, CM

Online Certified Manager (CM)

Carl Taylor was born and raised in Texas, is the father of three wonderful children, and soon to be a grandfather for the first time. He earned an Associate’s degree from Alvin Community College (Phi Theta Kappa), a BBA in Management at University of Houston at Clear Lake (UHCL), and a MBA at the University of Phoenix (UoP) at Houston Clear Lake.

Carl served in the United States Air Force for 7 years and worked at NASA for 22 years before becoming an adjunct Professor for UHCL, UoP, and San Jacinto College. His experience includes management, instructor, electronics technician, flight control, and process control. He is currently the Chairman on the Board of Regents of the Institute of Certified Professional Managers (ICPM) and is the Professional Development Chair for the National Management Association. He is a Certified Manager and a Certified Special Olympics Trainer and Coach which has contributed to his qualifications to coach youth sports including football, basketball, little league baseball and Special Olympics for the past 15 years.

The Online Certified Manager Program is offered by San Jacinto College District in partnership with the Institute of Certified Professional Managers (ICPM), an educational institute at James Madison University and sponsor of the internationally recognized Certified Manager® (CM®) certification.
