Project Management
Business of Project Management

Description: Identify the importance of selecting the “right” projects for your business, the communication skills a project manager needs, and essential problem solving skills.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:
• Importance of the project manager as a business manager
• Project, program, and portfolio management and their relationship
• Project selection tools and techniques
• Communication skills as the key to success
• Problem solving skills and techniques every project manager needs to master

WHO SHOULD ATTEND
New project managers, project managers, project team members, and technical staff members

This course is required in order to complete the Project Management Certificate Program offered by the San Jacinto College District.

Hours: 7hrs
Date: Mar 22nd thru Mar 27th
Meet: Tuesday and Thursday
Time: 6pm – 9:30pm
Course Fee: $175
(Includes Participant Material)

Location:
San Jacinto College South
13735 Beamer Rd
Houston, Tx. 77089

For more information contact: David Lewis 281.542.2061 email david.lewis@sjcd.edu